Subversion from the offices of

Studenta Satanus

"Satanism doesn't mean having sex with goats, but hey if it aids you in your progress through life...well it's all right - I mean there's nothing immoral about it..."

A non-prophet organisation.

"I conjure thee,

All of these other organizations
serve our Dark Lord well, despite their intentions; every book and record that is burned is a sacrificial offering which Satan accepts gleefully!

-- Shakespeare, Julius Caesar

Equality demands that in a pluralist egalitarian society,
EITHER if anyone is offended,
whether they be Satanists, Buddhists, Pagans, Agnostics, Free-thinkers, Hindus, etc, the perpetrator must be punished equally as if a Judeo-Christian was offended; OR more reasonably,
people should be free to speak their mind regardless of who chooses to be offended, and call it BLASPHEMY.

Disobedience was man's Original Virtue.

-- Oscar Wilde

"Crucifixes are sexy because there's a naked man on them"

Whatever alleged "truth" is proven by results to be but an empty fiction, let it be unceremoniously flung into the outer darkness, among the dead gods,
dead empires, dead philosophies, and other useless lumber and wreckage!

Infernal Diatribe II:12

(Satanic Bible)

"Love one another" it has been said is the supreme law, but what power made it so? Upon what rational authority does the gospel of love rest? Why should I not hate mine enemies -- if I
"love" them does that not place me at their mercy? Is it natural for enemies to do good unto each other -- and WHAT IS GOOD?

Infernal Diatribe III:1-2

(Satanic Bible)

Welcome to BLASPHEMY;
according to the OTHER four Christian student societies at UTS, you have already forfeited your very SOUL by reading this far into a Satanic document, so read on, you no longer have anything to lose! And yes, Satanism is a branch from Catholicism,
just as is any other Protestant movement, its just that we didn't stop at Protesting, we Rebelled!
We use the same Bible, and we use the same basic theological framework, but we see it from a more illuminated perspective.

Blasphemy laws plainly bias in favour of large religious organizations -- why should their members have more rights,
have greater freedom of speech,
and have their tender feelings considered over all non-members? People who belong to small independent religious movements, or who may actually be freethinkers capable of an original thought who have worked out their own worldview and ethics, are discriminated against.

FIRST STEPS...

Your first steps to becoming a Satanist, Witch or Warlock is a simple symbolic gesture of DEFIANCE. Prior to going to bed, on three successive nights, light a candle, and address yourself to it with the following words:

Nema! Livee morf su revilleyd tub
Noishaytpmet ootni ton suh deel
Suh tshaiga sapsert tath yeth
Vigrawf eu za sesapsert rua suh vigrawf
Derb ilaid rua yed sith suh vig
Neveh ni si za thre ni
Nud eeb liw eyth
Muck mod-ngik eyth
Main eyth eeb dwohlah
Neveh ni tra chio
Rertharf rua!

This is in fact, the Lord's Prayer written backwards, phonetically spelt to make pronunciation easier. Chant the words, visualizing great iron shackles struck off your hands and feet by sizzling bolts of lightning and disintegrating into molten shards to either side of you. Feel the burden of all your inherited guilts, all those awful shalt's and shalt not's, all that vast edifice of twaddle and claptrap, sliding easefully from your back. When it is all over, blow out the candle, uttering the words:

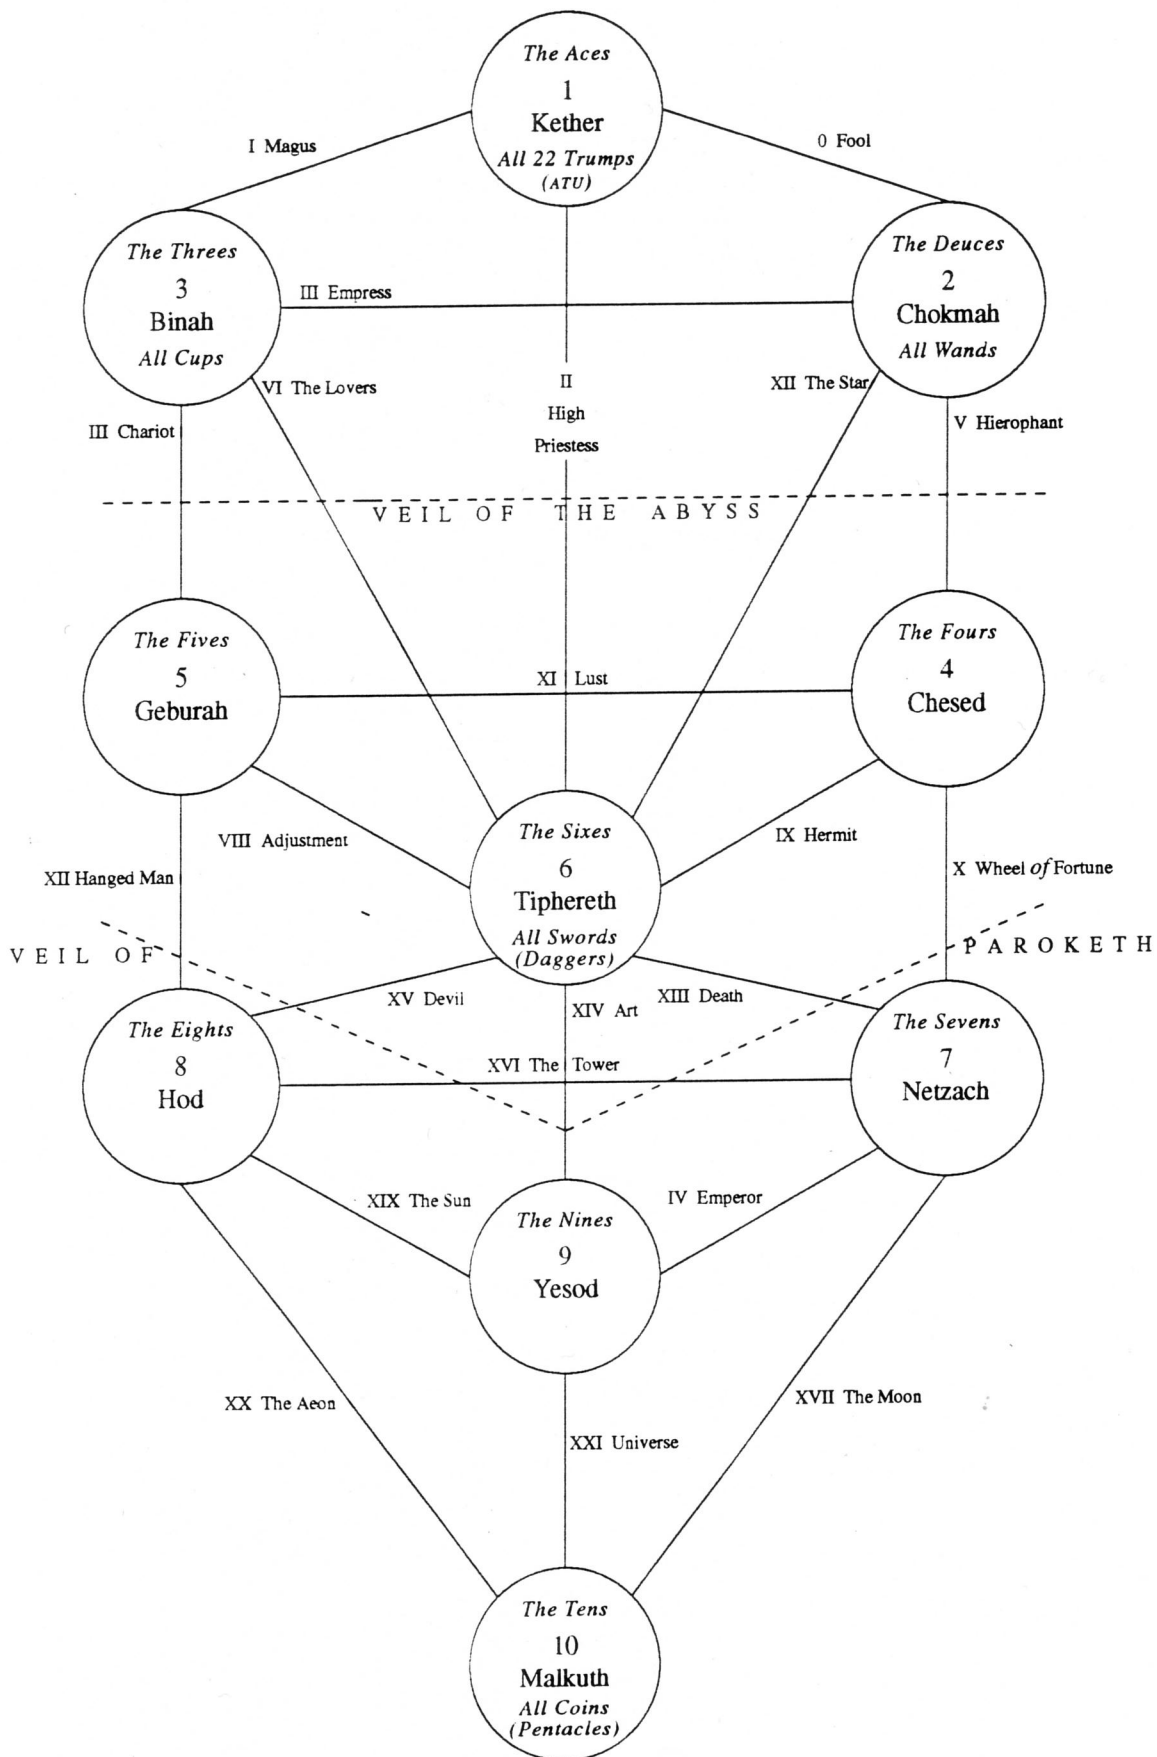

"GOD IS DEAD. WE ARE ALL ABSOLUTELY FREE".

Religion is a defense mechanism against religious experiences.
-- Carl Jung

God is omnipotent, omniscient, and omnibenevolent - it says so right here on the label. If you have a mind capable of believing all three of these divine attributes simultaneously. I have a wonderful bargain for you. No checks, please. Cash and in small bills.
-- Lazarus Long

The Bible is not my book, and Christianity is not my religion.
I could never give assent to the long, complicated statements of Christian dogma.

eMASCULISM

We have a Women's room, a Women's Officer, an uncensored Women's page in Vertigo, and a UTS SA Women's Handbook; with the only provision for men being the toilets! This is despite the fact that men make up the majority of UTS students. After Feminists protest about the Women's pages in the tabloid newspapers as being sexist, they now demand a women's issues only page in Vertigo. There has never been a men's issues only page. This year, Vertigo finally had an article that was about a male-only issue - freedogging. Naturally they felt the need to append the article with a female chauvinist's opinion of the issue, telling men that they should always wear underpants because freedogging makes men unattractive and makes women like her uncomfortable. If it had been an article on women not shaving their legs and armpits, would Vertigo have had an addendum from a male writer telling women to shave their legs and armpits because not doing so makes women unattractive and men uncomfortable? Of course not! This is clear-cut sexism from the editors. Fat chance of getting a male perspective on the Women's page! Why a Women's page? Can't women's issues compete for space equally with the gender-free issues, and (shock-horror) men's issues?

The Women's Handbook was a joke, and a blatant example of SA female chauvinism. Open it at random: page 38, "All Men Are Rapists" in large bold type. The majority of students at UTS are male, and we had to pay for this? Where is our Men's Handbook, or aren't men important enough? Another random look at pages 54 & 55 reveals a serious Astrology section! No lampoon this, but serious personality profiles presented as fact along with dates of upcoming events. So much for discouraging the superstitious weak-minded woman stereotype! Going through this handbook systematically, one finds only three female-only issues: breast cancer, menstruation, and pregnancy; and surely women want men to be better educated about these issues? The rest of the handbook covers issues of equal concern to men: assertiveness, abortion (father's rights are not discussed), Aboriginal students, Careers, Child care, sexual assault, contraception, domestic violence, health, homosexuality, immigrants, overseas students, post-grads, student politics, safe sex, sexual harassment (surely you want men reading this?) and writing. All of these are issues involving BOTH sexes. It would have been more equitable for the SA to either write a separate equivalent Men's Handbook, or else add extra material and a little editing for a general Information Handbook for both sexes.

Obviously the cry for sexual equality is totally hypocritical, and is a rational-seeming cover for blatant female chauvinism and discrimination against men. Make no mistake, discrimination "for women" is definitely AGAINST men. Equality means that the sexes should be equally represented by our student association. As for Vertigo, men make up the majority of its readers, why shouldn't their needs be satisfied?

DIRTY BOOKS ARE FUN

The people who are offended by erotica naturally call it by a derogatory name, they call it "pornography". The UTS Student Union Board banned the sale of erotic magazines at Union newsagents in May, on the basis that Board members didn't agree with the ideas published in them, or the speculated effects on impressionable vulnerable little student minds. In June they rescinded the motion, realizing perhaps that they have no damned right to decide such things, but members such as our Union President have declared that the debate isn't yet over and they haven't given up their right to dictate our reading material. You may notice that all of the UTS Union and Student Association media have biased their reporting of the issue by exclusively using the derogatory term. Neither have they chosen to air the other side of the issue, as no contrary views are permitted.

The Union Board has no problem with violence-promoting magazines like "Soldier of Fortune" of course. its only sex that the puritans are hung up about. The right-wing feminists of Vertigo, push even further with their "Women's issue", which while festooned with nude women and descriptions of lesbian erotica, denounced heterosexual erotica, and heterosexual men in general. Meanwhile the Student Association's Honeycomb Women's Handbook on page 38 announces "All Men Are Rapists".

"Pornography" is clearly a watershed issue for liberty. If one wishes to look at dirty magazines, that is nobody's business but one's own. It's certainly not the government's or the Student Union. Nor do conservative religious groups have the right to deny such material to other groups in a pluralist society. Now the UTS fascist feminists are saying that heterosexual erotica takes too many liberties with liberty and must be crushed. They have obviously abandoned Voltaire's principle : "I disagree with your views entirely, but I will defend to the death your right to express them!". Unfortunately, the feminists support the fallacy that silencing prejudice, sexism, chauvinism, or bigotry destroys it, and that attacks on liberty, freedom of speech, will substitute for informed debate and somehow cure all sexual inequality.

Claims have been made that gynophile erotica, in particular heterosexual erotic magazines, (naturally female gynophiles, "lovers of women" are considered okay?) directly or indirectly cause "physical and mental violence against women" or at least promote such crimes. The feminists insist that erotic videos lead to rape, despite the fact that most official reports, even those that energetically sought to establish a link to please their political masters, have returned with a total negative. The most recent report from Britain says : "The evidence does not point to pornography as the cause of deviant sexual orientation in offenders." Nowhere has any evidence been provided by the UTS fascist feminists to back up these puritanical accusations. Claims that the subtext or, indeed the text of "pornography" is violence against women, fail to examine homophile art and erotica.

Ms Plibersek in Vertigo states "Freedom of expression of one group cannot ignore the rights of another group". But nobody's rights are infringed by the sale of erotic fantasy magazines, and since when has the right to read or view been superceded by anyone's rights except their claim to the right of Thought Police? Ms Plibersek and Co don't like the kind of sexual fantasies that some men at UTS are enjoying, so they want to restrict what you can see/read to what they consider is politically correct sexual fantasies. By what right do they dictate the private sexual fantasies of others? By what right do they tell you that the Union shall sell only literature that is politically correct by THEIR limited point of view? "There is no honesty in pornography" she says. Why should there be? Its all about fantasy. And you and I have the right to fantasize privately about anybody and anything in anyway we damn well please! Even if the fantasy is unethical, immoral or ideologically unsound! In the privacy of your very own Head, Ms Plibersek has no right to Police your thoughts. As long as its fantasy, its none of Ms Plibersek's damned business. The magazines will lead to ideologically unsound thoughts? Thats none of her damn business either. Men have a right to think for themselves and make their own judgements, regardless of whether they are right, wrong, or approved. The same accusation is made by the proponents of all banning and book burning. Where do you draw the line? And isn't it really autoerotica that bothers you? Why are homosexuality and bisexuality acceptable "deviations", but voyeuristic autoerotica is not? All the people involved are consenting adults after all.

Further claims about "objectification of women" and portrayal of women as "sex objects" misses the possibility of women being portrayed as sexual people in erotica. Voyeurism is an activity that all human beings enjoy at some point in their lives. The simple fact is that men enjoy looking at pretty girls, the more they see the better they like. If you don't like this naked truth, then too bad, this is Reality. Its the way men are constructed, a visual sexual esthetic is hardwired into the male brain. As Tom Lehrer once said "The simple matter is that dirty books are fun", listen to his song "Smut", supporting our Cause. He's on tape in the library. You may notice that lesbian erotica is fully supported by Vertigo, as it is for homosexual females, and therefore ideologically sound. In fact when someone writes in to complain about their coverage of Wicked Women, they give the only instance of the pro-erotica argument in UTS media in the editors' defense of their behaviour; comparing the letter-writer to Fred Nile! Talk about the pot calling the kettle black!

Freedom of speech includes erotic literature. The heterosexual erotica sold at newsagents encourages frustrated male heterosexuals to masturbate, where their frustrations might otherwise lead to sexual assault or simply casual sex. Casual sex, even if performed with a condom, is still a high risk behaviour for AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases, and can lead to unwanted pregnancy; condoms are not 100% guaranteed protection. Masturbation is 100% safe, prevents rape, and is a private and legal sexual expression. Female chauvinist puritans have no right to interfere with this universal, and very private practice. On the matter of supposed "exploitation" erotic magazines exploit men, not women. Its the men who pay out the money, and the women who pocket the money. In addition to the model's huge fees, often the editors and photographers are women too. If we're not very careful, all our little acts of censorship, in the interests of Political Correctness will add up to a grand total of totalitarianism.

Puritanism is the haunting fear that somebody, somewhere, might be having a good time.

-- H.L. Mencken

In order to prevent the gender chauvinism displayed in Vertigo, BLASPHEMY wishes to inject some equality into UTS gynophiles. Wicked Women was put forward as a truly great magazine which was refused sale to male gynophile buyers, and its location a carefully guarded secret. Blatant sexual discrimination in action. To redress this we reveal that Wicked Women is on sale at Half-a-Cow Books Comix & Records, 85 Glebe Point Rd, Glebe, just a short walk from the UTS tower!

Circuit 6 neurogenetic consciousness: This symbolizes a Pan-like god, displaying the concept of genetic memories symbolized by the human-animal seed-forms in the testicles.

Βεστιαζιτγ

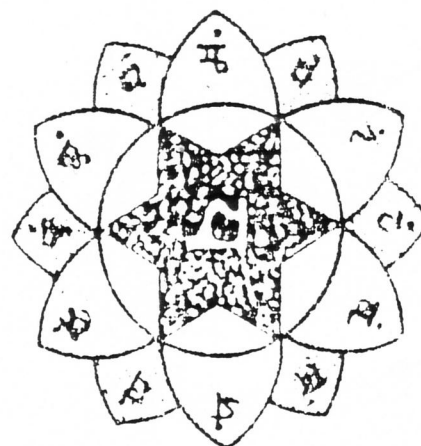

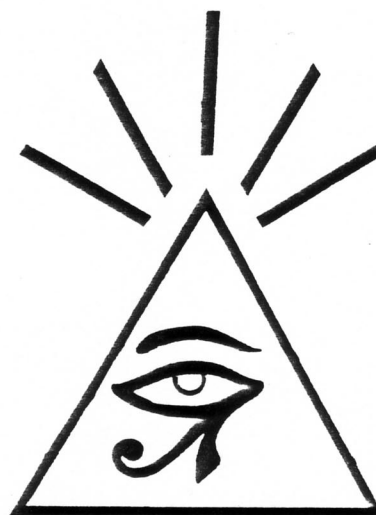

Humans are primates, 95% of our DNA is identical with chimpanzee DNA, 85% is identical to that of the South American spider monkey. Humans are animals, so bestiality is simply inter-species sex. Any biologist will tell you its quite common. Insects will copulate with any bug that comes along if they can't find their own species. The ubiquity of the mule shows how common is the occurrence of inter-species sex, Bestiality as our law calls it, between horses and donkeys. Throughout the reptile, bird and fish kingdoms, the same behavior is commonplace.

There is no species on the planet that thinks it is "degrading" to have sex with another species - except ourselves. And that is because we are trying to forget that we are primates. Everything that we regard as filthy, obscene, blasphemous, and disgusting is part of the ancient mind science called Magick. In ancient Egypt, priestesses performed fellatio on a goat every year on the Egyptian New Year's Day, which is our July 23. This was central to the Egyptian religion. The most common subject in the cave paintings left by our ancestors thirty thousand years ago, is people having sex with goats and bison and every animal they knew about. (Check this out for yourself; "Ghost Dance: Origins of Religion", by Weston LeBarre). You find the same in ancient Indian art, ancient Babylonian art, ancient art everywhere.

And you find the Magick secret coded into myth and legend over and over. The formula for producing a Man-God or Super-Hero is the mating of human and animal. Europa and the bull; Leda and the swan; Beauty and the Beast; Buddha fathered by a white elephant in some versions of the legend. This is the alchemical secret of gold. This is why Eve and the Serpent are credited with giving us the knowledge of good and evil. The Hebrew word for 'serpent', NESCHEK, has the same Cabalistic value as the word 'Messiah'. And the Messiah is born of the union of a woman with a bird! The formula is obvious: animal-human-super-human.

SATANIC VERSUS

INCEST -- The children of Adam and Eve, the first two people (according to the second creation story), had to practice incest in order to produce children of their own. (Genesis 19:32) Lot's daughters want to produce some heirs, so they make him drunk each night and have sex with him. They become the ancestors of the Ammonites and the Moabites, two groups of people considered very wicked.

BIBLE PORNOGRAPHY -- the whole Song of Solomon. [it has actually been banned as pornographic when printed separately from the Bible (Vern and Bonnie Bullough: Sin, Sickness, and Sanity: A History of Sexual Attitudes)] Soon to be reprinted in BLASPHEMY, but available from those obliging Porn brokers at the Gideon society.

WAR -- Yeshua ben Yosef proclaimed (Matthew 10:34-39) "You must not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a son's wife against her mother-in-law; and a man will find his enemies under his own roof." "No man is worthy of me who cares more for father and mother than for me; no man is worthy of me who does not take up his cross and walk in my footsteps. By gaining his life a man will lose it: by losing his life for my sake, he will gain it."

HATE -- (Luke 14:26) He also proclaimed that if you do not hate your parents, your brothers and sisters, your wife or husband, or your children, you cannot follow him.

FAMILY -- (Luke 2:49) His mother? When he was 12 years old, he told her "Don't you know I must be about my Father's business". At Cana, he told her off again (John 2:4) "Woman, what have I to do with you?" Elsewhere (Matthew 12:46-50) he ignores his family.

POLYGAMY -- David had several concubines, (1 Kings 11:3) King Solomon had 700 wives and 300 concubines, (2 Chronicles 11:21) King Rehoboam had 18 wives and 60 concubines, and (2 Chronicles 13:21) King Abijah had 14 wives.

PETULANCE -- (2 Kings 2:23,24) Elisha cursing the children who taunted him about his baldness [we are told that two bears came and killed 42 of them] and (Mark 11:13-20, Matthew 21:19-20) Yeshua ben Yosef cursing a certain fig tree because it wasn't in season for figs (we are told that it died the next day [Mark], or that it died immediately [Matthew]). (Matthew 20:12-13, Mark 11:15-17) Jesus Christ drives the moneychangers out of the Temple, declaring that they have turned into "a den of thieves." (Exodus 2:11-16) Moses murders an Egyptian overseer who had murdered an Israelite slave. Not being able to cover up the body or the deed, he fled from Egypt. Note that one of the "Ten Commandments" states: "Do not commit murder" [modern translation]. (Exodus 32:19) As Moses was coming down with the tablets with the Law written on them, he noticed that his people were worshipping a golden calf (really a young bull, a common symbol of strength and fertility). He got so furious that he broke those tablets. Curiously, neither Moses nor God felt too bad about this possibly sacrilegious act -- God made new tablets to replace the old ones. Noah's cursing of Ham qualifies in this department also.

COMMUNISM -- (Acts 4:32-35) The early Christians had all things in common, with the property administered by the apostles.

NECROMANCY -- (1 Samuel 28:7-19) When King Saul was out of luck, getting no answer from dreams, Urim or Thummim, or prophets, he turned to a medium in Endor ("the witch of Endor") for help. Though she was reluctant to help someone who had driven people like her out of Israel, she did what he asked, and brought back the ghost of the prophet Samuel, whom Saul proceeded to consult for advice.

ANIMAL SACRIFICE -- The Book of Leviticus contains detailed directions for various animal sacrifices. When King Solomon dedicated the Temple, he ordered the sacrifice of (we are told) 22,000 cows and 120,000 sheep. When Noah made burnt offerings from the sacrifices he had made, God relished the smell. In all fairness, animal sacrifice in the Old Testament, like animal sacrifice among many ancient societies, was simply a ritual surrounding the slaughter of a meat animal. Part of it was to be shared with whatever gods were worshipped by the sacrificer; the gods always seemed happy with the parts that their worshippers did not like.

HUMAN SACRIFICE -- (Genesis 22) Abraham is willing to sacrifice his son Isaac to Yahweh, only to be told at the last minute that it was only a test. (Judges 11:39) Jephthah proposed to sacrifice whatever came out of his house when he returned if he won a battle, but was very disappointed to discover that it was his daughter (and not, for example a dog) that he had to sacrifice. In the letters of Paul, we learn that the execution of Jesus Christ was really a human sacrifice; one that will serve as substitute punishment of the sins of anyone who chooses to believe in him (you can be as wicked as you want, but as long as you believe in Jesus Christ...).

GOD'S MISTAKES -- In Genesis 2, we learn that God has to fix his creation as he goes, as if he could not anticipate everything that was necessary. In Genesis 7, we learn that God was very unhappy about the way humanity had turned out -- he had never anticipated that people could be so wicked (though we are not given too many details on that). So God is not really omniscient after all -- he could not anticipate the consequences of some of his actions, at least according to the Bible.

BLIND FAITH -- (II Corinthians 5:7) "For we walk by faith, not by sight:"

DESPAIR: -- (Matt. 27:46) "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" O He of little Faith!!

HELL: -- The Hell Law says that Hell is reserved exclusively for them that believe in it. Further, the lowest rung of Hell is reserved for them that believe in it on the supposition that they'll go there if they don't.

Fun with Neurotropes

Legally available OPIUM: Soldiers in the American Civil war used lettuce opium as a pain-killer for the wounded. You can do it too, whether wounded physically or emotionally, with these simple instructions. Buy some lettuce seed or some lettuce seedlings from a nursery. Grow the lettuce until it goes to seed, and then slash the stem just as you would for an opium poppy. The resulting sap smells like opium, and just breathing the fumes can put you to sleep, so be careful!

Legally available MORPHINE: Chemical analysis reveals that 1.2 litres of cows milk contains 0.10 of a therapeutic dose of morphine. This is real morphine, not endorphins. Some is in the alfalfa they eat, but cows apparently make morphine in their livers. Those contented cows? They're doped to the eyebrows full of morphine!

Legally available MARIJUANA substitute: Catnip (Nepeta cataria, also known as Cat-mint), has been used for centuries to entertain cats, who get high on the herb. It is legally available through most Pet-shops, and can be ordered in by your friendly local nurseryman. This drug can be smoked whenever marijuana is in short supply, or is simply too expensive, or too risky. Catnip is completely legal, so you can't be busted for possession, selling or growing of this feline psychopharmaceutical!

Legally available SMART DRUGS: PHENYLANALINE is an amino acid found in chocolate and nutrasweet. It is a precursor to noradrenaline and beta-Phenylalanine, two brain chemicals that are natural uppers. Phenylalanine is good for alertness and memory. Phenylalanine is available from Health food stores, its best to get it in a form that combines it with vitamin co-factors and in a dose of around 500-800mg, and for best effects taken 30 minutes before food. Phenylalanine extends the high of caffeine from 45 minutes to about 2-3 hours, so its a great study drug. CHOLINE is another amino acid found in eggs, soya beans and many other foods. It is a precursor to the brain chemical associated with memory and learning, acetylcholine. Choline is available from Health food stores. Best effects are from high doses of the phosphatidyl choline form, which is available as SuperLecithin, about 1 gram per meal (three capsules), with the meal. Avoid like the plague the choline bitartrate form, which can cause stomach problems.

No expletives have been used anywhere in this document as part of the diabolical policy of the editors. Only anal-retentive neo-puritans find expletives emotionally charged in this, the closing decade of the twentieth century. Who else would be shocked by sex, genitalia, illegitimacy and excreta?

In addition, expletives are in such common use as punctuation and euphemism that most people have become totally desensitized to them. They are no longer useful as satisfying communication of intense emotions.

Finally, the absence of expletives removes any barriers to reproducing this document in the commercial media. Besides which, blasphemy has greater cultural and political significance and is more shocking!

We will of course deny having anything to do with this publication. If questioned, we neither wrote nor edited nor distributed this amazing document. After all is He not the Father of Lies??
